Dealing with sin and other problems

When it comes problems, we will always have them in our lives no matter what. Problems are a way of life in this world, but learning to deal with them is what separates the mature mind from that of the childish one. Even the apostle Paul said:

(1st Corinthians 13:11) "When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things."

As adults we have to deal with daily problems like adults, even though sometimes we would rather "React" than deal with problems. However, when we do deal with some significant or maybe some not so significant problems, let us not dwell on those problems to the point that they rule our lives. God did advice humanity NOT to fret on problems facing us in life.

(Psalms 37:7-8) Rest in the LORD and wait patiently for Him; Do not fret because of him who prospers in his way, Because of the man who brings wicked schemes to pass. Cease from anger and forsake wrath; Do not fret—it only causes harm.

So, when we are faced with problems in life, it's best to listen to God's advice to humanity, because in all reality, He is our creator and knows exactly what we are able to bear, and even though it may seem difficult, we are not to fret about it. Remember what God told us in:

(1st Corinthians 10:12-13)

Therefore, let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall. ¹³ No temptation has overtaken you except such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way of escape, that you may be able to bear it.

God has all the right answers if we only learn to listen to Him. God wants the best for us, but we need to have faith in His Word and in His Holiness. God will never steer us wrong; He will always give us every opportunity to come to Him by way of His Son Jesus Christ. Adrian... Lesson Title: The Untamable Tongue Scripture Reading: James 3: 1 - 12
