Here today...Gone tomorrow.

One thing is certain in this life, we are born, we live, we grow older and finally we are called home by our God. The question is, are we truly ready for our moment in front of our God? Because in that defining moment, all that we did with our life will be completely revealed before our God.

2 Corinthians 5:9-11 (NKJV)

Therefore we make it our aim, whether present or absent, to be well pleasing to Him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. Knowing, therefore, the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are well known to God, and I also trust are well known in your consciences.

We must live with the pleasing things we have done in our lives, and we must also live with the disastrous things we have done in our lives. Good or bad, we must continue to strive for perfection and though it is easier to point the finger at other's offenses we must begin by pointing our own finger at our offenses first. Then we can know without a shadow of a doubt that are pleasing our God.

Matthew 7:1-5 (NKJV)

"Judge not, that you be not judged. For with what judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you. And why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but do not consider the plank in your own eye? Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye'; and look, a plank is in your own eye? Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.

Let us strive for perfection today...so that we may be with our God tomorrow.

Adrian
