

Who are we and what do we represent?

Loving vs. hateful, forgiving vs. grudging, friend vs. enemy. In each comparison, which word best represents who you truly are? Words like "loving", "forgiving" and "friend" represent a genuine individual who is willing to reach out to those in pain. On the other hand, "hateful", "grudging" and "enemy" usually represent people who have defined themselves by their negative experiences. As Christians, we must remember who we are and who we represent. The perfect example was set for us by Jesus Christ, who laid His life down to grant eternal life to the very people who sinned and betrayed him (Luke 23:34, John 20:23).
