When is enough...enough?

We have a duty to God, and that duty is to please our God, but how can we be pleasing to God when we are at war with one another? Christians often forget that we are not here to win arguments or put people in their place, we are here to encourage and edify our brethren so we can stay committed to the Gospel of Jesus Christ and keep our focus and concentration on getting our families to heaven. However, we are always going to have those that are contentious and ill-natured towards, not only people, but their Christian brothers and sisters. Those that refuse to grow up and serve God with a mature heart and mind. The bible teaches that we are to give those type of people with such poor attitudes a couple of chances and then break away from them, otherwise the ill effects of those poor attitudes will begin to reflect on the whole congregation.

Titus 3:9-11 (NKJV)

But avoid foolish disputes, genealogies, contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and useless. Reject a divisive man after the first and second admonition, knowing that such a person is warped and sinning, being self-condemned.

This is not my opinion; this is God's advice by way of the apostle Paul not only to Titus, but all Christians dealing with such problems.
