

Looking forward to 2019

I hope everyone had a great Christmas time with family and friends, we eagerly look forward to a new year with an all new set of goals. The time we spend with family is always treasured because these are memories that we can share with each other for years to come, especially when our grandchildren are so young and innocent, they will be children but once in their life so afford them the time to be children.

As we look forward to the New Year I get excited because I know that many new opportunities and many new souls will be added to the church. Keep in mind that our main objective as Christians in this world, is find those outside of Christ and teach them the Gospel, because the whole reason for us being in this world, is to do our Father's will. God sent us His Son Jesus Christ to live as an example for us and to give His life for our redemption, so don't take it lightly when it comes to the lost.

Romans 10:14-18 (NKJV)

How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, Who bring glad tidings of good things!" But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?" So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. But I say, have they not heard? Yes indeed: "Their sound has gone out to all the earth, And their words to the ends of the world."

2019 will be a year to remember, as we re-dedicate our lives to the One who gave it all our Salvation...
