A Dad's Responsibility

Some things we see in society today are mother's who have to care and tend to their children alone because the husband/boyfriend decided that it is too surreal when it comes to caring for their own flesh and blood. No wonder kids are running wild and rampant in this world, when there is no male influence in child's life they are missing two very important ingredients, the love and discipline of a dad. What those boys do not seem to understand is that making a child is the easy part, raising a child is what is difficult. Listen to what Paul said in: 1 Timothy 5:8 (KJV)

But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

What Paul is saying is that a man that does not care or provide for his family, those men are worthless, especially those of the household of faith. The responsibility falls on the man to work for and secure his own family. It's been that way since the beginning and it is still the same today.

Genesis 3:19 (KJV)

In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return.

The apostle Paul gives some really sound advice when it comes to the family, listen to what is written:

Ephesians 6:1-4 (KJV)

Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honour thy father and mother; (which is the first commandment with promise;) That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

Happy Father's Day to all those dad's who have been there for their families...

Adrian
