Seeing Through the Eyes of God

What exactly do we see when we look at the world as a whole? I can see the exact same painting as my wife, and we would see different facets of the painting. However, as Christians we need to really focus on what we need to see rather than what we choose to see. Here is what I mean, many times during our life, we choose to see what is convenient to us rather than facing up to reality. We may choose to ignore the real things in life in order to shelter or ease our conscience from what we really truly see. That is when I and the rest of Christianity need to open our eyes and see what God sees through His eyes. The reason for that is this, if we don't deal with reality as it is, then how can we deal with problems plaguing the world? We are supposed to win souls for God, but if we hide from the problems of the world, then how are we to lead those lost in those problems to redemption in Jesus Christ? We need to truly open our eyes and see what God sees and lose of the fear of what people think of us because of who we represent.

Matthew 16:13-17 (NKJV)

When Jesus came into the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, saying, "Who do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?" So they said, "Some say John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter answered and said, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus answered and said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but My Father who is in heaven.
